

Mark Rushworth

Group Chief Executive Officer, UP Education

Mark joined UP Education in 2018, bringing senior leadership experience in a number of growth-orientated organisations, including 12 years as a CEO.

Mark was most recently CEO for electronic payments provider Paymark. Prior to that, he was CEO of Pacific Fibre and internet provider ihug and also CEO of the Fixed and Broadband business unit for Vodafone New Zealand.

He is a non-executive director of NZ-listed Freightways.

Mark holds a Bachelor of Engineering (Honours) and a Masters of Engineering Management from Canterbury University.