

Christy Collis

Professor Christy Collis is Provost of the Australian Institute of Professional Counsellors and Endeavour College of Natural Health.

With an academic background in Cultural Studies, Christy has a strong track record in higher education leadership. Roles she has previously held include: acting Director of the USQ Office for the Advancement of Learning & Teaching; Associate Director of Academic Development, USQ Office for the Advancement of Learning & Teaching; founding Head of Department of Entertainment Industries and Arts Management at QUT; founding Head of QUT's Faculty of Creative Industries Work-Integrated Learning program; Director of Research Quality of QUT's Faculty of Creative Industries; and Provost of the International College of Hotel Management.

Christy is a TEQSA Expert and is President-Elect, HERDSA (Higher Education Research and Development Society of Australasia).