OUR RESPONSIVE COURSE

Our innovative degree course has a focus on creative development and expression, post-production, strong photography skills and practice and camera technique; together with the many contemporary innovative practices of digital photography, video, screen and content production.

You'll gain the professional education you need to be versatile and responsive in today's photography landscape and pursue a rich and varied career in photography, videography, digital imaging and content creation.

YOUR BACHELOR COURSE INFORMATION

At PSC we run 3 semesters per year so you can complete your Bachelor degree sooner in just 2 Years of full time study.

Semester 1 & 2

You start by exploring the range of creative possibilities offered by your camera and digital technology. You learn to apply the professional practices underpinning digital capture and workflow including storage, cataloguing, post processing, capture, technique, lighting and screen/print output. You will explore a range of photographic genres and contemporary approaches to photographic practice and visual storytelling.

Additionally, you'll work with artificial and natural lighting on location including flash, mixed lighting and lighting design and in the studio you will be introduced to studio photography, lighting and creative image construction. Through a variety of projects and assignments you'll have an opportunity to explore your personal expression and produce a folio of printed images.

"When searching places to study I came across PSC and found it was one of the best photography schools in the world....I decided to give the creative part of me a chance and to move to Melbourne!

Since starting my Bachelor degree at PSC it feels like a big family at the campus, full of kind people always happy to help. I enjoy the small class sizes, where every idea is heard and appreciated."

– Marcela Lehocka | Bachelor of Photography
Second Year Student

Semester 3 & 4

You will expand your work particularly within the studio and on location, whilst also developing further the ability to reflect on the ideas that inform and drive your photography as a visual communicator. You will further extend your technical skills in workflow and studio lighting, as well as video production and retouching.

You broaden your horizons by exploring professional practice and outcomes in a range of photographic genres, such as portraiture, fashion, sports, still life etc. You experience working with external clients on real world projects, publishing and exhibiting your work.

INTERNATIONAL STUDY OPPORTUNITIES

As a degree student you will have the fantastic opportunity to complete your Workshop Practicum subject as an International study opportunity in either Osaka, Japan in partnership with UEDA College of Fashion or in Paris, France at Paris Fashion Week.

"PSC has supported me with so many industry connections, from learning from experienced, knowledgeable, award winning teachers working in the industry, involving you in the Melbourne photographic community, reaching out to the professional community; to helping you with pretty much anything you need."

– Chad Weerasinghe | Bachelor of Photography | Graduate

YOUR CHOICE OF MAJOR

Commercial photography

The commercial photography major allows you to enter into a wide range of commercial photography careers. You will develop exceptional skills in professional lighting, digital and moving image, setting you up for leadership roles in the industry. After completing the commercial major, you will have the opportunity to excel in careers involving fashion, advertising, architecture, sport, portrait and wedding photography.

Art photography

The art major allows you to specialise in the world of contemporary art photography, exhibiting and publishing your work nationally and internationally. This program is designed for students wishing to develop their distinctive and individual style and work in the creative industries. You will develop a critical awareness of current art practices, preparing you for graduate study and professional art careers.

Photojournalism

The photojournalism major will ignite your passion for communication and allow you to specialise in this exciting, fast-paced industry. After completing this major, you will have the opportunity to work in a diverse range of international media platforms including, visual content production, on-line and digital publishing, moving image and documentary film making. Graduates engage in a variety of careers involving media, editorial, travel and documentary photography.

"I have a deep love of exploring the natural world and in my final year I majored in photojournalism and found it absolutely invaluable for all styles and aspects of photography I work with now. I currently spend my time living between Melbourne and Newfoundland in Eastern Canada where I balance both my commercial and documentary work."

OPPORTUNITIES TO PARTICIPATE IN PHOTOGRAPHY FESTIVALS, AWARDS AND EXHIBITIONS

PSC students, graduates and staff are constantly taking part in a range of national and international festivals, awards, prizes and exhibitions that showcase the exciting scene that is Australian photography and image making today.

PSC is part of PHOTO Australia International Festival of Photography as an Education Partner and our students and graduates are consistently featured in the Ballarat International Foto Biennale. Over the past 2 years our Higher Education Course Director, Dr. Kristian Häggglom, has participated in 'Speculative Horizons' the exciting collaboration for contemporary photography between Kuwait and Australia. These festivals along with the many metropolitan and regional exhibitions are just a few of the photography events that provide enormous opportunities for our community.

We also have students, graduates and staff as winners and finalists in numerous awards and prizes such as the CCP Summer Salon, Capture Magazine Australiasia's Top Emerging Photographers, PhotoCollective Australian Photography Awards, the Australian Photographic Prize and many more.

All these opportunities reflect the important role that photography plays in today's contemporary visual culture.

"Every student inspires me everyday at PSC. Looking at their work, listening to their ideas and helping them through their backlog of problems. Helping them refine their ideas helps me refine mine."
