Degree

PHOTOGRAPHY STUDIES COLLEGE

Bachelor of Photography & Digital Imaging

Course code: CRS1200013

VTAC Course code: 9100191442

Admission to the Bachelor of Photography & Digital Imaging course requires you to attend an informal interview and present your creative work.

Informal interview

The interview is a way for us to get to know you, how you express your creativity and your interests in image making and photography.

This is your opportunity to tell us about your dreams, your motivations, what inspires you... tell us why you've always wanted to pursue a creative course.

The interview is not panel based but personal, informal and usually one on one.

You'll have the opportunity to answer questions about your creative work and discuss your interests and motivation. You'll have a chance to ask questions as well!

The interview will be conducted together with your creative work presentation.

Creative work presentation

The creative work that you present at your interview should be your own work and include 8-10 photographs or equivalent.

This work may be made up of photography or other mediums such as video or painting, drawing, sculpture or moving image. Whatever medium you use to undertake your creative work.

The presentation is your opportunity to discuss your creative work pieces including your ideas, processes and inspirations.
